“Alright, you two—enough poker. We’ve gotta get ready for our deliveries.”

“Prancer... are those deer across the table flirting with us?”

“Typical Vix—I’m trying to win some cash here! I guess we’d both be happy leaving here with...”

THE CHESTNUT CASINO

Santa, you've gotta hear this. I had the craziest set of hands!

Okay, so I got every type of hand (except high card) at least once.

I only got a pair once; immediately after that, I got a three of a kind (one of the two I got tonight), and then my only four of a kind.

Oh, and that pair I got was the exact same pair I had in my full house! The triple in that full house was a higher value than the pair.

The triple in that full house was missing a club. Actually, I was missing the club in my three of a kinds, too!

Also, I got the exact same hand twice! Can you believe that?

Speaking of twice, I only saw two aces all night, and they were the same suit.

At least I got my favorite card in each of my last two hands.

What else... oh—each time I got a flush (which was more than once), my next hand was even better.

Anyway, that's it! Wait, no, one last thing: I saw eight eights.
